

Value Added Course
on
Light Songs
Department of Indian Music (Hindustani Vocal)
(For 6th Semester Students)
Refence Letter No-260/dt-20.01.2023

Brief Description of the Course:

The Department of music, B.J.B. Autonomous College, Bhubaneswar offers a value added course on Light Songs where focus would be to train the participants to sing semi-classical, bhajan, sugam sangeer etc in a proper way. The Course offers the participants to get the basic knowledge about different forms of light music, acquire the basic skills and also to come across some amount of research works associated to this field. This Course offers an opportunity to the budding minds who wants to be successful singers in future.

Course Objectives:

- To enable the participants to learn the difference between Classical music and light music.
- To introduce participants different forms of light music.
- To enable the participants to learn about singing and performing styles.
- To develop knowledge regarding voice production, voice modulation, volume control etc
- To help the participants develop overall personality.

Course Outcomes :

- Students can distinguish between classical music and light music.
- Students can perform different forms of light music.
- Students will have a knowledge on singing styles and performing styles.
- Students will have a know-how on voice production, voice modulation and volume control.
- Overall personality development will be there.

Basic Eligibility and requirements to do the Course :

- The participant must be a bonafide student of B.J.B Autonomous College.
- He/She must be pursuing a Regular Course in College.
- Since this course is designed for beginners and budding artists, anyone having interest and minimum singing skills can pursue the Course.

Course Duration:

Duration of the Course is 40 hours.

Classes will be held on each working day from 2pm-3pm in Music Department of the College.

Scheme of Assessment:

The course will follow a continuous comprehensive assessment.

Participants will be given a series of assessments including practical sessions.

At the end of the Course, there will be a test of theory having 30marks and practical of 70marks. Those who will secure more than 40% in theory and practical combined will be issued Certificates.

Course Instructors:

Dr Nazia Sayeed

Sri Amit Rath

Sri Kshiti Prakash Mohapatra

Course Content*Module 1:

Basic Introduction of Music

Difference Between Classical and Light Music

Study of Different Forms of Light Music

Module-2

Learning to sing a Devotional Song

Learning to sing a Patriotic Song

Module-3

Learning to sing Folk Songs

Learning to sing Sugam Sangeet

Module-4

Learning to sing Semi-Classical Songs

Revision of the previous learnings

---