Report on the Seminar Observing United Nations Day

Organised by: Department of Political Science in collaboration with IQAC, BJB Autonomous College, Bhubaneswar

Date: 24th October 2025

The Department of Political Science, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organised a seminar to commemorate United Nations Day on 24th October 2025. The programme was presided over by Dr. Sunanda Hota, Head of the Department. The theme of United Nations Day was United Nations at 80: Building Our Future Together.

The distinguished faculty members — Dr. Prabhat Chandra Mohanty, Dr. Madhusmita Jena, Mrs. Hemalata Nayak, Dr. Magadha Maithyeli, and Shri Suvendu Kumar Baral — graced the seminar and presented their multidimensional perspectives on the essence, relevance, and contributions of the United Nations in promoting global peace, development, and cooperation.

Both Undergraduate and Postgraduate students actively participated by presenting insightful papers focusing on diverse aspects of the United Nations, including its role in global governance, sustainable development, and human rights promotion.

Dr. Madhusmita Jena and Mrs Hemalata Nayak attended the event as IQAC representatives. The seminar was coordinated by Shri Suvendu Kumar Baral along with other esteemed members of the department.

The session was not only intellectually enriching but also inspired meaningful academic interaction. It successfully provided a platform for students to express their innovative and analytical ideas. It deepened their understanding of international institutions and global issues like Climate Action, Poverty and Artificial Intelligence. The event concluded on an intellectually fulfilling note, reinforcing the department's commitment to promoting global awareness and academic excellence.
