Constitution Day 2025

26/11/2025

The Department of Political Science and the Department of History, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), jointly commemorated Constitution Day on 26 November 2025 with great academic fervour and patriotic spirit.

The programme sought to honour the vision of the framers of the Constitution and to inspire students with its enduring values.

The event was presided over by Dr. Sunanda Hota, Head of the Department of Political Science. The programme was further enriched by the gracious presence of the Esteemed Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Jhumki Rath, who attended as the Chief Guest.

The highlight of the occasion was the Keynote Address delivered by Professor Baikuntha Nath Swain, whose insightful perspectives illuminated the philosophical foundations and contemporary relevance of the Indian Constitution.

Adding further intellectual depth, Prof. (Dr.) Laxmikanta Bhola, Head of the Department of History, engaged the students with a series of thought-provoking and critical questions on constitutional values and democratic citizenship.

Prof. (Dr.) Mousumi Das, Coordinator of IQAC, eloquently highlighted the essence, spirit, and transformative power of the Constitution in nation-building.

A distinctive feature of the programme was pledge taking of the Preamble. Innovative paper presentations by students of the Political Science Department showcased their analytical understanding and creative interpretations of constitutional themes. Students from both the History and Political Science Departments captivated the audience with their melodious musical performances, adding a cultural vibrancy to the academic ambience.

As a meaningful gesture of respect and appreciation, a copy of the Constitution of India was presented to the Principal Madam.

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Anita Padhi, Department of History, who gratefully acknowledged the contributions of all dignitaries, faculty members, and participants.

The entire event was smoothly coordinated by Dr. Madhusmita Jena, Mrs. Hemalata Nayak, and Mr. Suvendu Kumar Baral, whose collective efforts ensured the programme's success.
